

The site plan shows three distinct plots within a larger development area. Plot A and Plot B are located at the top, separated by a central access road and parking area. Plot C is a larger, more complex structure located below Plots A and B. The plan includes surrounding streets, a north arrow, and various landscaping elements like trees and lawns.
